

"Development Dispatch" weekly update from the Metro Planning Department, November 26, 2008

Be careful with your holiday FOG

Metro Water Services has asked us to remind holiday cooks not to pour FOG (Fats, Oils and Greases) down your sink drains because it could possibly clog up the sewers. Metro will accept FOG for recycling at the East and Omohundro Drive service centers – directions to those two sites are on the Public Works webpage.

Planning Commission work session Dec. 4

SP zoning and its relation to conservation overlays will be the topic of an informal work session at 9 am Thursday, December 4, in the Nashville Room at the Metropolitan Planning Department offices, 800 Second Avenue South. Members of the Metropolitan Historical Commission will also be present.

Holiday schedule

Metro offices will be closed November 27/ 28 and December 24/25, open December 26 and December 31.

Metro Public Works' Thursday trash and recycling pickup will be done on Saturday this week.

The Planning Commission will meet only once in December, on the 11th.

Public meetings next week

Madison Community Plan update
6-8 pm Thursday, Dec. 4
Goodlettsville Branch Library, 106 Old Brick Church Pike

Rural Hill/Moss Road neighborhood concept plan presentation
6:30 – 8:30 Thursday, Dec. 4
St. Ignatius Catholic Church, 601 Bell Road

Questions or comments:
Craig Owensby - Public Information Officer, Metro Planning
862-7192 craig.owensby@nashville.gov
Planning Commission agenda information line 880-1006